AHS Music Director Davis To Lead State Music Conference

Mr. Darcy Davis, Agawam High Music Director, will lead a conference session for state music educators on the topic of 'Musical Productions in the High School.'

Mr. Davis has been involved in many productions in this field and has served as coordinator for the faculty directors who train students for the annual Broadway musicals at Agawam High for a number of years.

The state music educators conference will take place at Waltham on April 2, 3 and 4 and include a number of seminars on various phases of school music programs. The session on school musicals will take place on Friday morning and will include some excerpts from the recent production at Agawam High, 'Carousel.'

Two members of the cast, Jim Gibson and Karen Kozlowski, are members of the All-State Chorus which will be performing at the conference. They will be joined by several other cast members, Linda Haynes, David Neill and James Hill for the clinic demonstration and discussion on musicals for high school music directors of the state.

Although quite a few high schools now produce Broadway musicals in one fashion or another, only a few were doing

1970 Bicycle Registration And Inspection Program Nears

As warmer weather comes upon us, the re-appearance of the bicycle becomes more evident each day. Safety Officer Harold J. Burnett noted that many new bicycles are on the scene this Spring and the children (and some adults) have been making inquiries, in recent days about inspections and registrations.

You may recall that in April 1969 we conducted our program during school vacation, and although successful, some of the days were poor weather-wise and presented difficulty in adhering to the reflective tape to the bicycle. For this reason our major bicycle program will be moved to May (exact dates will be announced later).

However, last year we instituted a neighborhood type program, where upon request the safety officer would proceed to a single home in a neighborhood registering and inspecting all bicycles in the immediate area. This met with instant approval of parents of smaller children, allowing them to partake of the program without having to travel long distances to the school yard. "Safety wise I feel this is the best way to conduct our program."

Diet Workshop To Aid St. John's Building Fund

The Catholic Women's Club of Agawam is sponsoring a Diet Workshop Open House at St. John's Hall, to benefit St. John the Evangelist Parish Building Fund. The public is invited to attend on Thursday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m.

An experienced group leader, Marianne Samble, who has lost weight on this program will conduct the meetings. No medical advice is given, nor is group therapy attempted. Weight loss is attained through the stimulus of meeting others who share the same problems in following each other as they lose weight together.

Discussions are held on special problems, such as entertaining, attending dinner parties and other affairs, resisting children's left-overs, how to satisfy the nibbler and how to coordinate the diet with family meal preparations.

As participants in the program, members can anticipate losing pounds gradually and sensibly by means of using gourmet recipes, such as Diet Workshop pizzas and Diet Workshop Frappes. These recipes, which go hand-in-hand with the diet are distributed each week, giving the members something to look forward to, as opposed to the old "rabbit food" school of dieting.

STATE OF THE STATE

by Governor Francis W. Sargent

A MONTHLY REPORT TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COMMONWEALTH

On February 25th, the Legislature, meeting in Joint Convention, defeated by a single vote a proposal which would have allowed the citizens of Massachusetts to vote on whether or not the House of Representatives should be reduced in size.

The vote on the House cut proved beyond anyone's doubts that Massachusetts needs constitutional reform.
 And reform, as all responsible men know, requires change. To reform, and therefore change, an existing institution is no frivolous matter. It deserves serious consideration.

But to kill the people's chance to reform the Legislature is to prove how desperately we need that reform.

Paths of Change

The best available method of bringing about reform - is a Constitutional Convention that will take place next year order. And the constitutional convention will give the voters this chance...this chance denied them by the Legislature.

The People Speak

I would like to explain something of the workings and membership of the ConCon.

-- The convention would consist of 150 members: 3 to be elected from each of our 40 state senatorial districts; 10 elected by the people at large; 10 elected by the Senate; and 10 elected by the House.

-- The convention would discuss and propose amendments to the State Constitution. If approved by voters in 1972, the amendments would become part of our Constitution.

A reduction in the size of the House would be within the scope of the convention. And,

"To kill the people's chance to reform the Legislature is to prove how desperately we need that reform. . ."

if approved by you - the voters - this fall.

I pledge anew to work for bipartisan support of the convention.

I have taken the unusual step of asking for full discussion by conventions of both political parties, because this issue is vital to all of our citizens.

A Household Word

Two years ago the voters of Massachusetts approved an initiative law which provides that a question be placed on the 1970 ballot asking voter approval of a constitutional convention.

If approved, the ConCon, as it has come to be known, would assemble in July of next year.

Between now and the time for balloting on this question, I intend to exert every effort to make the "ConCon" a household word.

Let me make that clearer still: The time has come to place our legislative House in

at long last, THE PEOPLE would speak . . .

A Time For All Renewal

In this first spring of this new decade, I seek to renew the worn out fabric of a state government which must increasingly work for the people.

I have proposed and mandated by signing into law a total reorganization of our state agencies and departments which will take effect
 next year.

I have addressed and pledged myself to the need for a redirection in priorities in state government in my annual message to the General Court.

I now seek to complement these efforts by asking you to join with me now in - still another bipartisan effort - a movement to update the legislative arm of our state government.

And together we shall renew the face of Massachusetts.

Now We Understand

I have no means of knowing how many of the readers of this column are alerted to the general attitude of this year's Town Meeting Members. If the thousands of our citizens who are unable to attend, would like to know, then I feel it is my obligation to report to you some of my observations.

Prejudice should have no place in the legislative Town Meeting, no more than it should be a factor in state and federal legislation. It is only human to be enthusiastic in making your opinions known and it is difficult, to say the least, to vote against the wishes of your friends. It is difficult and at times a lengthy process to gain sincere friendship all of which can be so easily and quickly lost by casting a negative vote against him. I know of none who logically want to be spiteful but the pressure of a Town Meeting momentarily clouds that logic.

Whether I have made myself clearly understood is a matter of some concern of greater concern to me, is what this Town Meeting can do for you. I shall never ask any solace for myself. I can only seek it for you. In my opening remarks at our Town Meeting, I spoke of the ominous cloud of re-evaluation which could hang over our Town Meeting and shadow constructive action. That cloud seemed to disappear but was replaced by one much more ominous, a storm of apparent bitterness. An attitude of "If I can't have mine, then you can't have yours."

If this town is to continue to make progress, it must believe in the profound sincerity of its administration. These men and women are elected by you to establish policy. I don't refer simply to your Selectmen, but rather to your School Committee, Planning Board, and all the rest. I don't want to infer that they are always correct but they must be given the benefit of their judgement when you consider that they have done more research and are closer to each situation.

There are so many of us who hang our hat on an alibi. It is distinct cowardice to refuse to support an issue because some minute problem presents itself in the solution of a proposal. If Americans in general practiced this philosophy, they would never have become the leaders of the world.

And so as we face our major problem involving the construction of a new school, I believe that we should give our support to our policy making group, the School Committee. They are in unanimous agreement that a new Junior High should be constructed this year. They have the support of the School Building Assistance Commission. We own the land and we have paid for the plans. We are ready to build. Failure to act may result in higher prices, double sessions, failure to provide kindergarten seats, and possible loss of State Assistance to say nothing of gambling against loss of accreditation.

Is there any wonder that your Selectmen want to alert you to what is happening? They are the recipients of criticism for most of our setbacks, but don't point a finger on this issue because they are wholeheartedly behind your School Committee.

George L. Reynolds,
Selectman

Community Grange Program Tuesday

Community Grange will hold their meeting on Tuesday evening, April 7th, at 8 o'clock in the Grange home on North West St., Feeding Hills.

The guest speaker for the evening will be Mr. Richard W. Lucius of Springfield. He will present a program on "Nature's Birds of Prey" which is the title of a film he will show. It describes various species of hawks, falcons and eagles showing their habitat and nesting sites. In addition to the movie, he will bring live-trained hawks such as a prairie falcon, kestrel, red-tailed hawk and great horned owl.

Following the program a social hour will be enjoyed to which all are invited to remain. Mr. and Mrs. James Sgorbati and Mrs. Mildred Hamel are on the refreshments committee.

Consumer Report

(This is another Consumer News column from Attorney General Robert H. Quinn to inform the citizens of Massachusetts about the laws that have been enacted to protect them as consumers.)

The advent of spring usually brings an increase in the sales of home swimming pools as thoughts turn from the ski slopes to the water. But for some unwary consumers getting into the swim of things will prove to be an irritating and costly experience.

Most swimming pool contractors are honest businessmen who fully intend to fulfill their agreements with customers. However, a few unscrupulous contractors promise prospective buyers anything but produce only what is necessary to stay within the limits of the law.

One of the most common tricks used by these deceptive contractors is to promise verbally that the pool will be ready by a certain date. But the date comes and goes, the summer passes, and no swimming pool is installed. The buyers are bound by the contract to wait because they have nothing in writing to prove that the pool should have been finished.

Time Limit

To avoid this needless irritation, homeowners should agree with the contractor on a completion date for the swimming pool. This date should be included in the contract along with a penalty clause that requires the company to pay a certain amount for every day that the pool is unfinished beyond the specified date of completion.

Extra Parts
The contract should also contain a list of all items that are included in the price of the pool. This list should be checked with other pool contractors to ensure that it includes all the apparatus necessary for proper functioning and maintenance of the pool. Some contractors sell pools without certain parts that cost several hundred dollars. The pool owner is forced to pay for these expensive parts in addition to the several thousand dollars he has already invested in the pool.

This check list also provides a convenient means for comparing prices among contractors.

Warranty Loopholes

Before signing the contract, a buyer should be certain that the contractor has facilities within the state to fulfill the terms of the service warranty. The conditions of the warranty should be clearly defined so that the buyer knows to what extent he is responsible for the maintenance of the pool and who to contact if something goes wrong.

Last year, after an intensive investigation of home swimming pool companies by the Consumer Protection Division of my office, the Massachusetts swimming pool contractors formulated a code of ethics setting advertising, selling and servicing standards for these companies. The code follows the standards established in the Consumer Protection Act. Buyers in the market for a swimming pool should be certain that their contractor follows this code of ethics.

If you have a complaint or questions about consumer protection, contact the Consumer Protection Division of my office at the State House in Boston or in Springfield.

Let's keep in mind the old French proverb: "That day is lost in which one has not laughed."

IRS Asks Questions

Q. Last Spring, I put a $500 deposit on a house. Later on, I decided not to buy the house but the real estate agent refused to give me back my $500. Can I deduct this as a bad debt?

A. No. This is a personal loss incurred by you because you failed to comply with the terms of an agreement you entered into and such a loss is not deductible on your return.

Q. I turned 65 in 1969 but have continued to work. My employer insists on deducting social security taxes from my salary. Will I get a refund at the end of the year?

A. No. The law requires that employers deduct Social Security taxes on the first $7800 of wages paid each employee during 1969 regardless of age.

Q. I am 73 years old and have been claiming the Retirement Income Credit for the past 8 years. The form for figuring the credit has always been on the back of the Schedule B. This year when I looked at the back of the Schedule B all I found were instructions concerning dividends and interest. How am I going to compute my Retirement Income Credit?

A. Retirement Income Credit is now computed on Schedule R in your new 1040 assembly. The new Schedule R is the same as the form that previously was on the back of the Schedule B.

Q. I have a problem concerning whether or not I am entitled to claim my son as an exemption on my 1969 return. He attended Boston University and received a $2000 scholarship. I provided the rest of his support which came to approximately $1000. Can I still claim him as a dependent?

A. Yes. The amount received as a scholarship for study at an institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and has a regularly organized body of students in attendance is not taken into account in determining total support.

Q. Can I deduct Medicare expenses?

A. Yes. The additional amounts paid under "Medicare" as premiums for supplementary medical insurance for the aged are deductible if you itemize deductions.

Q. I am a divorced woman receiving child care from my ex-husband. He paid about $700 in 1969 towards the support of our son. Who gets to claim our son as a dependent?

A. Usually, the parent who has custody of the child for the greater part of the year is entitled to the dependency deduction. However, if the other parent contributes at least $600 during the year to the support of the child, he or she may be entitled to the exemption. A more detailed explanation can be found in Publication #501 entitled: "Your Exemptions and Exemptions for Dependents."

Q. I am itemizing my deductions and I was wondering which taxes are deductible?

A. Deductible taxes include real property taxes, state income taxes, personal property taxes, state and local excise taxes and state and local gasoline taxes. Some non-deductible taxes include federal income, social security, excise, estate, gift or inheritance taxes, cigarette and meals taxes and also auto licenses and toys.

The Mass. beaver season ended March 1st, 6 weeks shorter than the season last year. Sixty-three trappers harvested 604 beaver pelts this year compared to 78 trappers who harvested 1052 last year.

Sixty-nine percent were trapped west of the Connecticut River and 31% were taken east of the River.

The beaver trapper is a conservationist in a very true sense. He is usually very careful to take the surplus out of the various colonies, assuring the colony a longer life with a balance of food and numbers. A complete trapping venture is used on those colonies known to be located where they are in direct conflict with man, the so called "nuisance beaver colonies."

The Mass. Division of Fisheries and Game has received a Demonstration Grant of $132,000 from the Division of Water Pollution Control to continue in its pesticide monitoring of the waters in Mass.

The grant, entitled "Massachusetts Pesticide Monitoring Study," is under the co-directorship of Colton Bridges, Supt. of Research and Management, and Lee Lyman, Lab Supervisor — Aquatic Biologist.

The primary object of the three year grant is to monitor the major rivers of Mass. for pesticides and PCB's-polychlorinated biphenyls which are plastic resins used in paints, varnishes and waxes. They have been found stored in fish and fresh water mussels. Their ability to stay intact in the environment is 2 to 3 times longer than the dreaded DDT, so familiar to us all. Their toxicity in the food chains appear greater than DDT.

PALMER HATCHERY

There has been an experimental salmon program at Palmer Fish Hatchery for the past two years. Salmon are very temperamental to raise. Andy Roman, Culturist in charge, and Harold Calkins, assistant to Roman, have been receiving and raising the salmon from all over the country.

Palmer has on hand 101,000 Kokanee salmon received from Conn. F&G. In May, they will go into Onota Lake at about 2" long. Approximately, 54,000 were stocked in Onota last year.

The hatchery has over 200,000 lake trout eggs courtesy of N.Y. Fish & Game. It is expected that a 50% mortality will result. However, Lou Hamby, project leader of the Quabbin Reservoir, hopes to stock 50,000 fingerlings in May, and retaining 25,000 for release in October, 25,000 will be held over for stocking in May 1971 at 5 to 8 inches in length.

Also at the hatchery, there are 5,000 to 10,000 Atlantic Salmon going on 3 years old, 6" to 8" that will be put in the Connecticut River this spring.

A shipment of 100,000 Atlantic sea run eyed eggs from a Provincial hatchery, New Brunswick, and 75,000 advanced frye from N.H. F&G to be raised up to 6" and will be stocked in mid-April, as spring yearlings, in the Conn. River.

In addition, 70,000 landlocked salmon fertilized eggs recently arrived at the Palmer Hatchery, (eggs not eyed are commonly referred to as green eggs) from N.H. F&G will go into the Quabbin Reservoir.

A reminder that the Agawam Sportsmen Club will stock their club pond April 2nd at 5 p.m. If you want to view some very hefty fish, drop over and watch the stocking operation. Pre-season fishing will commence on April 4th. Prizes will be awarded during the entire pre-season stint.

PH FACTOR

In answer to the many inquiries received in this corner as to what PH Factor means, the following explanation should clear up the many misunderstandings.

Acidity or alkalinity rating are designated by the symbol of pH (which stands for the hydrogen concentration). The total pH runs from 0 to 14 with 7 as neutral, 0 to 6.99 is acidic, and 7.1 to 14.0 is alkaline. Most streams and ponds are on the acid side, but in the winter time some lakes under ice become very acid — to the point, where trout if stocked would not survive.

Why wait for tomorrow? Tomorrow there's sure to be a tax on it.

PTA Council Opens Scholarship Drive For AHS Seniors

Officials of the Agawam Council of Parents and Teacher Association announced today through Council president, Mrs. Domenic DiDonato that Charles L. Kistner, Principal of Agawam Junior High has been named chairman of the 1970 PTA Council Scholarship Drive. Serving with Mr. Kistner representing the council is Robert Griffen as cochairman.

The council names its drive "Benjamin Phelps Memorial Scholarship Fund" in honor of the late Supt. of Schools who was actively associated with the school system for over 25 years.

Last year 17 Agawam students were awarded $100 scholarships by this fund. This fund provides scholarships which are awarded each year to deserving students chosen from the graduating class of the high school for the purpose of furthering their education.

The council has given many scholarships in the past years and at the present time has a member Mrs. Susan Drinkwater serving on the executive board as teacher representative who was one of the past recipients of the council's scholarships. She is now teaching in the School System at the Granger School and aiding the council on this year's scholarship drive.

Any High School Senior may apply for a scholarship and all applications for these scholarships by seniors must be returned to the Guidance Department, at the high school by May 1st.

Each Agawam PTA unit is running fund-raising projects. The first unit to complete a project was South School with a Drug Awareness Program and started this year's scholarship drive off with $100.

Other units are selling I.D. bracelets and necklace tags, ball point pens, gym bags as well as gym attire and showing movies to raise funds.

On April 8th (Wednesday), house to house solicitation will be made by authorized Junior High Students from 5-7 p.m.

On April 9th and 10th (Thursday and Friday), Senior High Students will solicit in the Agawam Shopping center.

Collections will be made at each of the towns schools during the week. Anyone wishing to add their support by making a personal contribution is welcome to do so—checks may be made out to "Benjamin Phelps Memorial Scholarship Fund" and sent to Charles L. Kistner, Principal, Agawam Junior High School, Main St., Agawam, Mass.

TENDER TRAP FOR THE HUNGRY MALE

If you're determined to land your man in 1970, don't underestimate the power of a romantic, home-cooked dinner. Particularly one that proves you can turn a small food budget into a culinary coup.

If you're not so sure of yourself in the kitchen, play it safe with a little outside help. There are two kinds of dinners that virtually every man falls for—plain steak, potatoes and salad or a meat recipe that's seasoned so magnificently he's convinced you're a natural wonder in the kitchen.

To turn that trick, here's a recipe that sounds fancy, looks elegant and tastes delicious—but it's made from an inexpensive cut of chuck. It's quick to prepare too, because it uses the easy 15-minute meat marinade mix that eliminates the need for pre-browning and is already delectably seasoned. It's called Pot Roast Florentine, a handsome roast dressed with a superb tomato sauce.

POT ROAST FLORENTINE

4 lb. chuck roast, 7-bone or round bone arm
1 package Adolph's 15-Minute Meat Marinade
2/3 cup cold water
1 large onion, finely chopped
1 large clove garlic, pressed or minced
2 8-oz. cans tomato sauce
1 teaspoon sweet basil
1 4-oz. can mushrooms, stems and pieces with liquor

Pour contents of 15-minute meat marinade package into Dutch oven or deep pot with tight-fitting lid. Add all ingredients except mushrooms and blend thoroughly. Place meat in this marinade. Turn and pierce all surfaces of meat deeply and thoroughly with fork. Marinate only 15 minutes, turning several times.

Cover and cook in preheated 325° F. oven, or simmer slowly over low flame, until tender, a total of about 1-1/2 to 2 hours. Add more water, if necessary or desired. No browning necessary! The Adolph's marinade mix gives it a rich, golden-brown color.

Remove pot roast to heated platter large enough for carving. Add mushrooms and liquor to gravy in Dutch oven; heat through and serve over meat sliced in thin slices at a 30-degree angle. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

The Fair Labor Standard Act Questions and Answers

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions 14th and Constitution Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20210

Q. I know Congress passed a law saying all factories must pay workers a minimum wage. What is it? Will it be increased soon?

A. The minimum wage required by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act is not limited to factory workers. It is currently $1.60 an hour. This applies to workers covered by the Act prior to February 1, 1967. There are no increases in this rate scheduled at this time.

Workers newly covered as a result of the 1966 Amendments, such as hospital, nursing home, school, laundry, and certain hotel, motel and restaurant employees, must be paid a minimum of $1.30 an hour. This increases to $1.45 February 1, 1970 and to $1.60 on February 1, 1971.

Q. I work as a clerk for a local bank. I am paid $1.45 an hour. A friend told me there is a Federal minimum wage law that requires I be paid a higher wage. Is this true?

A. Yes. The Federal Fair Labor Standards Act, says most workers engaged in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce must receive at least $1.60 an hour. This includes bank employees.

Q. I'm a janitor for a private hospital and am paid $1.20 an hour. My boss tells me he is not required to pay me the Federal minimum hourly wage of $1.30 because I work for a private hospital which he says is not covered under the law. Is he right?

A. No. All hospitals, except those operated by the Federal Government, are covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

My Beat — A.H.S.

By Joseph Della-Giustina, Jr.

The Agawam Environment Club advised by Arthur Gage, Miss Marion Bliss, and Allen Charbonneau started an anti-pollution campaign in Springfield. The students and teachers of the club handed out more than 700 pollution leaflets and collected litter. The leaflets contained air-pollution problems and ways in which an individual can solve this problem. The students received many dirty looks from passing adults.

The club is planning to begin an anti-pollution campaign in Agawam on April 22, the date set for the National Environmental Teach-In.

The Teach-In is sponsored by college and high school groups across the country.

On April 20, there will be a dance at the Carousel Roller Rink from 8-12 featuring a well-known band. The name of the band will be posted at a later date. The dance will be sponsored by the Agawam Teen Center. We hope there will be a good turn out, as we have had at our past dances.

On April 12, there will be a pancake breakfast from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Agawam Junior High School cafeteria. The price will be $.99. The dinner will include pancakes, sausage, coffee, tea, and milk. It is sponsored by the Agawam Lions Club for benefit for the Agawam Teen Center.

College boards will be held on May 2 at 8 a.m. in the Agawam High School cafeteria.

Mr. Harris, principal at Agawam High School, will be retiring, effective Aug. 31. We watch him work his final days with deep regret.

Health Mobile To Visit AHS

Mr. David Skolnick, Guidance Director at Agawam High School, announces that the Health Career Mobile will visit Agawam High School on April 13th and 14th to create interest in the many para-medical fields available to high school graduates who do not wish to further their formal education.

He noted that there is a critical shortage of all types of personnel required to do many para-medical types of work. Students should take advantage of these opportunities and act accordingly. The science department under the leadership of Mr. Harold Clark is cooperating with this career program.

V.F.W. Post 1632 Auxiliary Bulletin

By ANNA D. BISSONNETTE

It was a very busy week as the Auxiliary Ladies took lilies and azaleas to the Holyoke Soldiers Home and to the Veteran Administration Hospital; attended classes and work periods at Leeds; delivered Easter Baskets to Heritage Home and baskets and gifts to the Wilson Nursing Home, with the YMCA girls and Mrs. Sakellis; had a successful Egg Hunt and Meatball and Spaghetti Supper. President Katherine Dickinson wishes to thank everyone who helped in any way to make all these projects successful.

The months of April and May are and will be two of the busiest months of the year. Many things are planned for this season and will be carried out by the chairmen that will be appointed by the new President—to be in the next election. Yes, it's nomination and election time again and it's important that every member attend the next meeting and vote. Be sure the right woman represents you as head of your auxiliary by coming in and voting. President Dickinson announced a change in meeting nights for the next two months. The second Tuesday instead of the third Tuesday as before.

Insurance rate reductions up to 35% in two classes of G.I. National Service Life Insurance policies has been announced by Donald E. Johnson, Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

Veterans holding policies affected by the new rates will save $10,000,000 in premium payments every year, Mr. Johnson said.

The Administrator said also that premium reductions becoming effective this fall will benefit almost 600,000 veterans, approximately 10% of VA's total number of policy holders.

Premiums on one group of about 164,000 life insurance policies will be reduced an average of 18%, saving veterans about $5.6 million annually, Johnson said. These reductions result from increased interest earnings in this insurance fund. He said this reduction applied only to policies bearing the prefix "J"—not to those with "JR" and "JS."

He added that these policies were issued in 1965 and 1966 when insurance programs were re-opened to certain disabled veterans who were insurable as standard insurance risks.

Administrator Johnson said premium reductions averaging 35% will be made to a second group of some 420,000 veterans with five year renewable term policies bearing prefixes "V," "RS" and "W" and carrying the "optional total disability income" rider.

Reductions on these riders will save these veterans about $4 million a year. They were made possible because claims were less than anticipated.

Mr. Johnson stressed that since affected veterans will be notified of the premium reductions, it is not necessary to contact the VA.
